

MILITARY ORDER OF THE WORLD WARS

CINC BG Victor S. Perez, USA (Retired)

Commander in Chief & Chief Executive Officer, MOWW, Inc.®
The Military Order of the World Wars

Brigadier General Pérez was the Senior Vice Commander in Chief (VCINC) for two years and prior served a two-year tenure as one of the four VCINCs of our Order. Born in Shirley, Massachusetts on 25 February 1956. He holds a Magna Cum Laude BA in business administration from the University of Puerto Rico and a master's in science administration from Central Michigan University. BG Perez began his military carrier as an enlisted soldier, reaching the rank of Sergeant. After four years of enlisted service, he returned to civilian life and completed his bachelor's degree. Upon graduation in 1983 as a ROTC Distinguished Cadet from the University of Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras Campus, he was commissioned in the Quartermaster Corps. BG Perez honorably served our Armed Forces for 36 years.

Although retired he continues his life of service. Presently the Commander in Chief for the Military Order of the World Wars. A former member of the Board of Directors of the Puerto Rico Red Cross, Vice-President Board of Directors of his community, a perpetual member of the Association of the United States Army (AUSA) and American Legion, the Chair of the League of United Latin American Citizen (LULAC) Veterans Charter, a proud Lion International of Caguas, and an active advocate and supporter of service members and veterans of our Nation. A proud Companion, veteran, and selfless server.

Married forty-five years to Francisca. Father of three sons Frances, Victor, and Cristina, and grandfather of six grandsons Julian, Emma, Sofia, Adrian, Daniel, and Noah. ★