

THE MILITARY ORDER OF THE WORLD WARS
435 NORTH LEE STREET
ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA 22314-2301

MOWW BIOGRAPHY

CINC LTC Michael A. Okin, MD, USA (Retired),
Commander-in-Chief & Chief Executive Officer, MOWW, Inc.®
The Military Order of the World Wars

CINC LTC Michael A. Okin, MD, USA (Ret), graduated from Washington & Lee University in 1976 with a BS in Biology. He then joined the Army via the Health Professions Scholarship Program through which he attended the University of Virginia (UVA) School of Medicine graduating with his MD in 1980.

He performed his internship and residency in Family Medicine at Dwight David Eisenhower Army Medical Center, Fort Gordon, GA, graduating in 1983. He transferred to Fort Bragg, NC, where he was a residency staff member at Womack Army Community Hospital and a Clinical Instructor, Family Medicine, at the University of North Carolina (Chapel Hill) where he completed a Fellowship in Family Medicine in 1985. While at Fort Bragg, he deployed to Grenada.

In 1987, he transferred to the Army Reserve and moved to Lynchburg, VA, serving as the Associate Director, Lynchburg Family Medicine Residency Program, and as a Clinical Associate Professor in Family Medicine, UVA.

In 1991, he was recalled to active duty during the Gulf War and deployed with the 475th MASH, 332nd Medical Brigade. In 1995, he went into private practice with Central Virginia Family Physicians (CVFP). In 1997, he retired from the Army Reserve and in 2015 retired from the active practice of Family Medicine.

In 2020, he retired as the Director, CVFP Laboratory and Diagnostic Center Services. He joined MOWW's Virginia Piedmont Chapter in 2006 and has served as its Commander, an EXCOM member and as a Chair, Vice Chair, or member of several National Committees. LTC Okin served as VCINC and SVCINC. ★

"serving Youth, Community and Nation"

WWW.MOWW.ORG